ABOUT UPK

UP Katilingban sa mga Anak Mindanao, or UP Kalinaw, is the official university-wide organization for all Mindanaoan students in UP Diliman, bound together by the same history, heritage and aspirations. The organization envisions just peace and genuine development in Mindanao and its members are guided by the principles of social awareness and cultural diversity.

rationalle

The UP Kalinaw Student Summit is an annual event that aims to gather high school students to promote Mindanaoan history, heritage, and culture, engage in discourse about Mindanao's current social milieu, and provide opportunities for the youth to be architects for social change.

This year is the second installment of the summit, with the theme, Lampara II: To shed light on untold stories to forward social change in Mindanao. This is motivated by the idea that listening to the stories of Mindanaoans informs us of the social, cultural, and political situation in Mindanao. Through listening to and immersing ourselves with the narratives of Mindanaoans, we essentially hear 'The Story of Mindanao.' This compendium of testimonies, in the form of various artistic expressions, can be a powerful tool for social change, as this can provide fresh perspectives, reduce prejudice, build communities and relationships, and promote understanding for all. Just like how a lampara lights our way as we traverse the unknown, this event aims to illuminate the wonders and uniqueness of Mindanao and its people.

LAMPARA II

To shed light on untold stories to forward social change in Mindanao

rationalle

In line with these goals, Lampara II will be a two-week-long celebration of Mindanaoan storytelling through a social media campaign—promoting and advocating for local history, heritage, arts, and customs. The event also aims to shed “light” on less-told stories all over Mindanao by giving platforms to local groups, artists, and personalities to narrate their stories. Additionally, it aims to tackle timely socio-political issues through various artistic expressions.

The summit culminates on the last day packed with synchronous activities that comprise a quiz show, and a webinar, embodying this year’s theme, designated for junior and senior high school students all over the country.

As an organization anchored on social awareness and responsibility, with the commitment of taking steps for achieving just peace and genuine development in Mindanao, UP Kalinaw believes that this event can be a powerful platform to manifest these goals and principles into fruition.

target beneficiaries and audiences

The main target audience and beneficiaries of Lampara II are junior and senior high school students in private and public schools in the Philippines. Specifically, the Pakusganay Competitions are only open to them. However, the beneficiaries of the subevents are extended to the following:

1. rising Mindanaoan local artists, community organizations, and other individuals and groups whose stories will be showcased and promoted throughout the two-week Storytelling Campaign, and
2. the followers of UP Kalinaw's Facebook page, primarily targeted to residents of the Philippines, wherein synchronous activities will be live-streamed.

registration guidelines

1. The webinar, Diyalogo, is open to all interested participants.
2. Participants must register to officially join the webinar through this link:
