The Landbank of the Philippines launches "Serving the Nation," an institutional multimedia campaign that embodies their commitment to assist various sectors of the economy and help contribute to national development.

The campaign highlights Landbank's expanded and unique role in providing intensified support to the country's agriculture sector alongside serving the requirement of key development industries.

As a partner in nation-building, DepEd offices are requested to disseminate this information by playing the campaign's three (3) 60-second thematic videos in LED/TV screens inside the Department's offices, lobbies, and other premises, if any.
