Schools Division Office – Muntinlupa City

Dear Ms. Sedilla,

Greetings of Peace!

In observance of the National Dengue Awareness Month this June 2022, the Department of Health – Metro Manila Center for Health Development (DOH-MMCHD) will spearhead the conduct of different activities wherein local government units of the National Capital Region will launch the month-long celebration by signing pledge of commitment at their respective LGUS.

In this connection, MMCHD will hold a Poster and Slogan Making Contest, to initiate active cooperation and participation of the community and schools in the prevention and control of dengue and other Aedes-borne viral diseases.

Kindly see below for the Rules and Mechanics:

ELIGIBILITY: The contest is open to all Filipino students from Grade VI to XII. No participation fee is required.

1. All entries should have a title.
2. The competition has two (2) categories:
 - a) Grade IV to VI
 - b) Grade VII to XII
3. Only one (1) entry per participant is allowed.
4. Specifications:
 - a) ¼ size illustration board
 - b) Any medium is allowed
 - c) No identifying marks shall be allowed in all entries.
5. Interested participants must submit their entries ONLINE, together with their School Identification Card (ID) at hpulhsd.dohncr@gmail.com with subject "MMCHD DENGUE CONTEST_(NAME)" (EX. MMCHD DENGUE CONTEST_JUAN DELA CRUZ)
6. Posting of entries on MMCHD HPU Facebook Page on June 16 to 22, 2022
7. Awarding of winners on June 24, 2022

Your cooperation and support regarding this matter is highly appreciated.

Thank you.

Respectfully yours,

JUANCHO H. BUNYI, MD, MPH
Officer-in-Charge
