Dear Director Cabral,

Pursuant to Proclamation No. 316 signed in 2017, the Maritime and Archipelagic Nation Awareness Month (MANA Mo) shall be observed every month of September to celebrate several maritime-related activities, including the Fish Conservation Week. It aims to raise the level of national awareness and consciousness on maritime and archipelagic issues and concerns. The Fish Conservation Week is a week-long celebration to promote the importance of fish and other aquatic products to the people's well-being and the country's economy.

Conforming to the proclamation, the National Fisheries Research and Development Institute (NFRDI) will be hosting a Poster Making and Campaign Video Contest on Food Loss and Waste Reduction on September 14, 2022.
