SYNOPSIS
OF LUKAS

The sensational life cycle and twisting moment of Macoy's life was when his Tatay Norman died and he met a Priest named Father Ted, leaving him no answer of his family where about and his true identity. He's frail and longingness brought him to a place where only trust and faith was his only weapon to live his life normally.

As Macoy's grew up facing insurmountable obstacles in life, in search for his biological parents and his family, along the way he encountered some personalities who witnessed and became a part of his life. His countless battles and tremendous painstaking slowly nurtured his mind until such time that he learned to embrace the importance of his existence.

Despite of difficulties, hardships and almost losing hope, Macoy never give - up. His longingness and full of aspiration coupled with patience, and perseverance asking God's help, guidance and blessings brought him to a place where all his never-ending questions come to an end.

His dedication and unending prayer bear fruitful results and later found his true/real identity.
