Dear Dr. Garma,

Greetings! We are a group of students from the University of the Philippines Diliman currently enrolled in SW 220: Generalist Social Work Practice under the supervision of Assistant Professor Suzanne Magalona-Nazal.

On 13 January 2023, we will be conducting a webinar entitled “Pandemya...Batang Ina: Teenage Pregnancies during the Pandemic: Lessons and Recommendations for Social Work in the Post-COVID Era” in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the above-mentioned course. The webinar will tackle relevant topics, including but not limited to, the extent of teenage pregnancies in the Philippines, key strategies employed by social workers and social work agencies in addressing adolescent pregnancies, lessons from social workers’ pandemic experience in addressing teenage pregnancies, and recommendations in addressing the issue especially during crisis situations. We have invited representatives from the Department of Social Work and Development (DSWD) and the Initiatives For Dialogue And Empowerment Through Alternative Legal Services (IDEALS Inc.) to share their expertise and insights regarding the said matters.

The webinar will be held from 9:45am to 12:00nn via Zoom and will be streamed live through the official Facebook page of our official publicity partner, UP Junior Social Workers’ Association of the Philippines (JSWAP). In line with this, we would like to invite your institution to become part of the program by sending your students, teachers, parents, counselors, social workers, and/or other community members as official delegates of the webinar. Registration is FREE. Interested individuals can by accessing this link: <https://bit.ly/RegPandemyaBatangIna> or scanning the QR code in the poster.
