Dear Director Cabral,

Greetings from the National Historical Commission of the Philippines (NHCP)!

Among the mandates of the NHCP is to manage, maintain, and administer national shrines, monuments, historical sites, edifices and landmarks of significant historic-cultural value. It manages 27 history museums nationwide, and six (6) of which are located in Metro Manila, namely:

- Museo ni Jose Rizal Fort Santiago, Intramuros Manila
- Museo ni Manuel Quezon, Quezon Memorial Circle, Quezon City
- Presidential Car Museum, Quezon Memorial Circle, Quezon City
- Museo ni Apolinario Mabini, PUP, Sta. Mesa, Manila
- Museo ng Katipunan, Pinaglabanan Memorial Shrine, San Juan City
- Museo El Deposito, Pinaglabanan Memorial Shrine, San Juan City

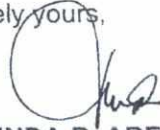

These museums are tasked to disseminate history to the public, especially to the students. However, since the start of the pandemic, educating students on history has been a challenge for the museums due to the quarantine restrictions imposed by the government. To fill in the gaps created by this pandemic, the NHCP resorts to distance learning. One of the mechanisms we are planning to implement is the conduct of pre-recorded/live virtual museum tours for Araling Panlipunan online/face-to-face classes for both elementary and high schools.

We would like to collaborate with the DepEd-NCR on the aforementioned activity, with the aim of bringing the museum learning experience accessible to the students amid the COVID-19 pandemic. Furthermore, we would like to request the DepEd-NCR to issue a memorandum to encourage the participation of various schools in this endeavor.

For confirmation and clarification, your staff may coordinate with Ms. Katherine Kay M. Oliveros at 09482968500/med@nhcp.gov.ph and/or with Ms. Ayesha Sayseng- Apostol at ahsayseng@nhcp.gov.ph. We are also attaching herewith the contact details of the museums for the virtual tour booking.

We are hoping for a positive response in which we thank you in advance.

Sincerely yours,

CARMINDA R. AREVALO
