Greetings of Peace,

The National Children's Month is a vital observance that highlights the importance of recognizing and advocating for the rights of children. In alignment with this year's theme, the Barangay Council for the Protection of Children in Barangay Poblacion aims to create an engaging and meaningful program that emphasizes children's rights, welfare, and active participation in the community. We believe that by involving our elementary and junior high school students in various activities, we can foster a greater awareness of their rights and responsibilities, promote civic engagement, and strengthen community ties.

As we celebrate National Children's Month, the Barangay Council for the Protection of Children in Barangay Poblacion is organizing a series of activities aimed at promoting children's rights and welfare. These activities will provide valuable learning experiences and opportunities for the youth to engage in community-building and awareness campaigns.

In this regard, we respectfully request your good office to issue a memorandum to the concerned schools, excusing these child representatives from their classes during the dates of the activities. This will allow them to fully engage and contribute to the programs without affecting their academic obligations.
