DR. VIOLETA GONZALES

Asst. Schools Division Superintendent | SDO Muntinlupa
Centennial Avenue, Laguerta Street, Tunasan, Muntinlupa City, Philippines.

Greetings of Peace,

The National Children's Month is a vital observance that highlights the importance of recognizing and advocating for the rights of children. In alignment with this year's theme, the Barangay Council for the Protection of Children in Barangay Poblacion aims to create an engaging and meaningful program that emphasizes children's rights, welfare, and active participation in the community. We believe that by involving our elementary and junior high school students in various activities, we can foster a greater awareness of their rights and responsibilities, promote civic engagement, and strengthen community ties.

As we celebrate National Children's Month, the Barangay Council for the Protection of Children in Barangay Poblacion is organizing a series of activities aimed at promoting children's rights and welfare. These activities will provide valuable learning experiences and opportunities for the youth to engage in community-building and awareness campaigns.

In this regard, we kindly request to create a memorandum of your endorsement to invite different students with 1-3 adult companion in each event that we have, from both elementary and junior high school students from the schools in Barangay Poblacion (Both Public and Private Schools) to participate in the planned activities.
