Subject: Proposal for In-School Orchestral Visit – A Live, Educational Music Experience for Students

Dear Dr. Gonzales,

Warm greetings and respect to your continued service in advancing quality education.

We are Crowned Claw Edventures, a legally registered educational event provider based in Pulung Maragul, Angeles City, Pampanga. We specialize in conceptualizing mobile educational events that bring enriching, curriculum-aligned experiences directly within school premises—with no need for off-campus logistics or student transport. Our goal is to make transformative learning experiences safe, accessible, and engaging for all students.

In our commitment to holistic development and artistic education, we proudly present our pioneering program:

✂️ “ORKESTRANG GALA: “A Live Music Education Experience: A Harmony within Reach”

This mobile orchestral concert is the first and only in-school orchestral experience designed specifically for elementary and high school students. Delivered on campus in a covered venue, this two-hour event features a 12-piece orchestra composed of professional musicians from the University of Santo Tomas Conservatory of Music—performers with both local and international experience.

🎵 Program Objectives:

- To revive student appreciation for live music in the age of gadgets and screen-based entertainment.
- To immerse students in the beauty of orchestral music, ranging from classical to contemporary.
- To provide hands-on musical interaction: students will conduct, play instruments, engage in Q&A, and participate in educational games.
- To instill discipline, collaboration, and cultural appreciation through structured musical performance.

Music in the Bible: Spiritual and Historical Relevance

We also recognize music's profound presence in Scripture:

- King David, a skilled harpist and composer of many Psalms, used music to worship and even soothe King Saul (1 Samuel 16:23).
- Asaph, a Levite appointed by David, led temple music and authored several Psalms (1 Chronicles 25:1).
- Miriam, sister of Moses, led the Israelite women in worship using tambourines and song (Exodus 15:20-21).
- The Levites, dedicated temple musicians, upheld sacred music in Israelite worship.
- Paul and Silas sang hymns in prison, showing that music can uplift even in trials (Acts 16:25-26).

These biblical figures remind us that music is not only artistic but spiritual, educational, and deeply human.

Educational Alignment with DepEd Curriculum

This program directly supports Music and Arts curriculum, helping students:

- Understand instrumental families and the structure of orchestras
- Appreciate traditional and contemporary music genres
- Develop confidence, creativity, and listening skills
- Engage in interactive, inquiry-based learning (through Q&A and demonstration)

Why In-School Performances?

- No off-campus travel required
- Reduced safety concerns and parent waivers
- No need for expensive auditoriums—only a covered space or multipurpose area is needed
- Seamless integration into class schedules
- Inclusive for all students regardless of background
- Allows mass participation, maximizing impact

Key Features of the Experience

12-Piece Live Orchestra from UST Conservatory of Music

2-Hour Interactive Show including:

- Live performance (classical, modern, and OPM selections)
- Conducting experience for selected students
- Instrument demo and try-out
- Q&A with musicians

- Meet-and-greet with the musicians

Orchestral Performance Attendance Requirements

To ensure the best possible experience and logistical efficiency, each orchestral performance will require a minimum and maximum number of student attendees.

For Private Schools:

- Minimum: 500 students
- Maximum: 525 students

For Public Schools:

- Minimum: 700 students
- Maximum: 725 students

This structure allows us to optimize the musical, educational, and logistical elements of the orchestral experience for students.

Each student will be required to contribute a minimum participation fee, which will cover all essential aspects of the performance experience, including:

- Professional orchestral performance
- Production costs
- Educational materials and facilitators and manpower

Exact pricing can be customized based on final headcount and school-specific arrangements.

We are fully committed to assisting each school in meeting the minimum requirements. Should there be limitations, we will provide coordination support and customization to make this event possible.

Our initiative focused on discovering and inspiring a new generation of musicians, music lovers, and young creative talents. This program aims to engage students in meaningful musical and artistic experiences.

“Let’s bring the harmony of Orkestrang Gala to every student—because music is not just heard, it’s felt.”

“The impact of one orchestral performance may fade from the ears, but its influence can echo in a child’s future.”

This isn’t just a performance—it’s an educational journey through music, culture, and heart.”

In line with this, we respectfully request your kind permission to allow us to share and coordinate this initiative with the school heads under your division. We believe that through this coordination, we can effectively reach students who may benefit from and be inspired by this opportunity.

We appreciate your guidance and consideration, and we hope to contribute positively to the development of student talent across your schools.

This isn't just a show — it's an educational journey that they'll remember for life.

Because orchestra music isn't just for the elite — it's for everyone.

Warm regards,

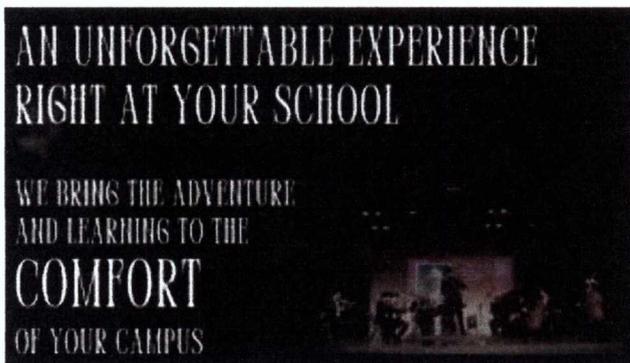

Reneir Cruz Ramirez
