Greetings in the name of free press!

Explained PH, a youth-led journalism organization driven by campus and community journalists nationwide, would like to invite your region to endorse our incoming journalism lecture series, JournCamp+ 2025, and online press conference, National Campus Press Summit.

This year's camp will feature sessions led by distinguished speakers who are National Schools Press Conference (NSPC) winners, professional journalists, and multimedia artists, offering insights across all individual and group journalism events. It will then be followed by a virtual press conference for elementary, high school, and college students.

We would like to thank the divisions and regions that have already endorsed our event.

As for those who have declined or are yet to respond, kindly refer to the link below. Attached herewith is the official endorsement from the Department of Education - Central Office.

EXPLAINED PH JOURNCAMP+

October 29, 2025

Regional Directors and School Division Superintendents,

Greetings in the name of free press!

Explained PH is a journalism organization driven by campus and community journalists nationwide. Since our founding in 2020, we have remained dedicated to fostering communities where facts can thrive through digital storytelling, journalistic training, educational programs, digital rights awareness, and fact-checking initiatives.

Our organization is set to hold our forth JournCamp+ (Explained PH Virtual Journalism Camp 2025) this November 8, 9, 15, and 16, 2025, and National Campus Press Summit this November 22, 23, 29, and 30, 2025.

JournCamp+ is an exciting opportunity for campus journalists across the country to refine their skills and engage in meaningful discussions about the role of journalism in today's rapidly evolving information landscape. This year's camp will feature sessions led by distinguished speakers who are NSPC winners, professional journalists, and multimedia artists, offering insights across all individual and group journalism events. As well as an online press conference for young journalists to take part in student and community journalism.

In line with this, we would like to request you to invite all high schools within your jurisdiction to take part in our event. The entire lecture series and press conference will happen during weekends, this is to ensure that no classroom lessons and events will be disrupted. Attached in this email is the event primer and the official invitation.

Should you have further questions and clarifications, please do not hesitate to reach out via mobile (0976 308 4785 - Prashanti Clarabelle Padayao (she/her)) or via email at pipadaya@explained.ph.

Thank you and we are truly looking forward to your favorable response!

About Explained PH JournCamp+ and National Campus Press Summit

The Virtual Journalism Camp is an annual initiative of Explained PH, an online media network led by young community and student journalists nationwide. It is designed to strengthen campus publications through capacity-building sessions that equip young journalists with the skills and knowledge they need to thrive in today's fast-changing media landscape.

This year, we proudly launch JournCamp+: National Campus Press Summit — combining seasoned practitioners with award-winning storytellers to give participants the chance to learn and engage with the best of Explained PH. As we continue to build communities where facts prevail, this summit becomes a vital space to share, collaborate, and explore impactful approaches to storytelling.

Objectives

- ▶ Capacity building - to strengthen campus publications through comprehensive skill development sessions
- ▶ Community Network - To connect with young journalists and student publications nationwide
- ▶ Expert Training - To learn from seasoned practitioners and award-winning storytellers
- ▶ Modern Approach - To explore impactful storytelling methods for today's media landscape

About National Campus Press Summit

The competition side of JournCamp+ — is a virtual press conference that brings together campus journalists from elementary, high school, and college to compete in a wide range of categories. Participants will be tasked to submit outputs online, simulating the real press conference experience in a nationwide setup.

With your registration, you get access to all lectures and the full competition — no extra fees. Winners will be awarded medals (shipping included), certificates of recognition, and national exposure.

JournCamp Through the Years

2022 (February 18-21)

First JournCamp

The pioneering camp featured six lectures: Headline Writing, News Writing, Opinion Writing, Sports Writing, Feature Writing, and Science and Technology Writing.

2023 (November 25-26)

Second JournCamp

Expanded with new lectures like Radio Broadcasting, Scriptwriting, Online Publishing, and Photojournalism to reflect growing demands.

2024 (November 23-24)

Third JournCamp

Showcased our largest lineup with 15 lectures, bringing together NSPC winners and seasoned industry veterans as speakers.

2025 (Month-long)

JournCamp+ Summit

Introduces a month-long program, expanded sessions, and the National Campus Press Summit competition for all student levels.

How do I register?

Simply fill out the official registration form and follow all the instructions provided. Once you submit, your slot will be recorded automatically.

How much is the registration fee and what does it cover?

The registration fee is ₱150. This already covers:

- Access to all campus journalism lectures
- Participation in JournCamp+ activities
- Eligibility for the National Campus Press Summit

What platform will be used?

The lectures will be conducted through trusted online conferencing platforms, ensuring participants nationwide can join seamlessly.

I registered but haven't received a confirmation email. What should I expect after registration?

After submitting your form, you will see an on-screen confirmation message confirming that we have received your registration.

A separate confirmation email will be sent to your registered address within a few days. If you don't see it, kindly check your Spam or Promotions folder.

What is the schedule of the lectures?

FAQs

National Campus Press Summit (Competition / Online Press Conference)

Is joining the competition required? What if I only want to attend the lecture series?

No, joining the competition is optional. It is not required since it is included only as a free add-on activity to make JournCamp more exciting. In the registration form, participants can simply select whether or not they want to join.

However, we highly recommend participating in the competition for the added experience and learning opportunity.

Who can join the National Campus Press Summit?

The summit is open to registered JournCamp+ participants from elementary, high school, and college.

Do elementary, high school, and college compete in the same categories?

No. Categories are separated by level (Elementary, High School, and College).

Do I need to pay an extra fee for the competition?

No. The competition is already included in your ₱150 registration fee.

How will I register for the competition?

Registration forms for both individual and group categories will be released separately, most likely by the end of October or early November. These forms will be sent only after all registrants have been consolidated.

What are the requirements for group categories?

All members must have completed their registration and payment.

Payment reference codes of all members will be required for cross-checking.

A designated group leader or coach will submit the consolidated form for the team.

Is proof of enrollment required?

Yes. All participants (individual and group) will be asked to submit a proof of enrollment (e.g., school ID or certificate of enrollment) for validation.

What do winners of the competition receive?

Winners of the National Campus Press Summit will receive a Certificate of Recognition, in addition to the Certificate of Participation and lecture materials.

Our school requires an invitation letter to allow participation. Who should we contact?

For official letters and invitations, kindly email poalbis@explained.ph
