SUBJECT : CALL FOR NOMINATION TO THE SEAMEO SEPS TRAINING OF TRAINERS ON GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION (GCED) AND THE INTEGRATION OF THE SUFFICIENCY ECONOMY PHILOSOPHY (SEP) FOR SUSTAINABILITY 2026

DATE : 11 March 2026

1. The SEAMEO Regional Centre for Sufficiency Economy Philosophy for Sustainability (SEAMEO SEPS), in collaboration with UNESCO APCEIU through the Global Citizenship Education Cooperation Centre (GCC) Programme, announces a Call for Nomination for the Training of Trainers on Global Citizenship Education (GCED) and the Integration of the Sufficiency Economy Philosophy (SEP) for Sustainability. The programme will run from March to October 2026, using a blended learning approach.
2. This programme aims to develop a core group of trained GCED and SEP trainers who can support capacity-building initiatives at national and regional levels. The specific objectives are to:
 - a. Strengthen participants' understanding of GCED and SEP in both theoretical and practical contexts.
 - b. Enhance participants' capacity to design, facilitate, and deliver training related to GCED and SEP in formal, or nonformal and TVET.
 - c. Foster a Community of Practice (CoP) that enables shared learning, reflection, and co-creation of knowledge based on lived and field experiences.
 - d. Establish a sustainable pool of SEAMEO SEPS-recognised trainers who can serve as resource persons for at least three (3) years.
3. The programme will run for eight (8) months and adopt a blended learning approach, combining:
 - a. Onsite training sessions
 - b. Field visits and experiential learning activities
 - c. Online engagements, including webinars and community exchanges

4. A key feature of the programme is the Community of Practice (CoP) approach, where participants actively share experiences, reflect on practice, and co-create knowledge. Emphasis will be placed on field-based learning, peer exchange, and practical application of GCED and SEP principles.

5. Program details are as follows:

Training of Trainers on Global Citizenship Education (GCED) and the Integration of the Sufficiency Economy Philosophy (SEP) for Sustainability

QUALIFICATIONS OF NOMINEES

This training programme aims to develop a pool of trainers on Global Citizenship Education (GCED) and the integration of the Sufficiency Economy Philosophy (SEP) for sustainability. The programme will engage 20-30 participants over 8 months, using a blended approach that combines onsite training sessions, field visits, and online engagements/webinars.

Implemented through a Community of Practice (CoP) framework, the programme emphasises shared learning, reflection, and collaboration. Participants will be trained in both the theoretical and practical aspects of GCED and SEP, with a strong focus on field-based experiences and co-creation of knowledge drawn from lived experiences. Graduates of the programme will be recognised as GCED and SEP trainers for SEAMEO SEPS in Southeast Asia and beyond, and are expected to serve as resource persons, trainers, or facilitators for a minimum of 3 years, with certification provided upon completion.

Nominations will be requested from SEAMEO Member Countries between February and March 2026, and the trainers training will take place between March and October 2026.

Subject: [DM-OULS-2026-106] CALL FOR NOMINATION TO THE SEAMEO SEPS TRAINING OF TRAINERS ON GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION (GCED) AND THE INTEGRATION OF THE SUFFICIENCY ECONOMY PHILOSOPHY (SEP) FOR SUSTAINABILITY 2026

Dear all,

Greetings!

1. The SEAMEO Regional Centre for Sufficiency Economy Philosophy for Sustainability (SEAMEO SEPS), in collaboration with UNESCO APCEIU through the Global Citizenship Education Cooperation Centre (GCC) Programme, announces a Call for Nomination for the Training of Trainers on Global Citizenship Education (GCED) and the Integration of the Sufficiency Economy Philosophy (SEP) for Sustainability. The programme will run from March to October 2026, using a blended learning approach.
2. This programme aims to develop a core group of trained GCED and SEP trainers who can support capacity-building initiatives at national and regional levels. The specific objectives are to:
 - a. Strengthen participants’ understanding of GCED and SEP in both theoretical and practical contexts.
 - b. Enhance participants’ capacity to design, facilitate, and deliver training related to GCED and SEP in formal, or nonformal and TVET
 - c. Foster a Community of Practice (CoP) that enables shared learning, reflection, and co-creation of knowledge based on lived and field experiences.
 - d. Establish a sustainable pool of SEAMEO SEPS-recognised trainers who can serve as resource persons for at least three (3) years
3. The programme will run for eight (8) months and adopt a blended learning approach, combining:
 - a. Onsite training sessions
 - b. Field visits and experiential learning activities
 - c. Online engagements, including webinars and community exchanges.
4. A key feature of the programme is the Community of Practice (CoP) approach, where participants actively share experiences, reflect on practice, and co-create knowledge. Emphasis will be placed on field-based learning, peer exchange, and practical application of GCED and SEP principles.

Expected Outputs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A pool of qualified and SEAMEO SEPS–recognized GCED and SEP trainers is established. Regional and national capacities for teacher training, facilitation, and programme implementation in sustainability and global citizenship education are strengthened. Regional collaboration and knowledge exchange are enhanced through an active and sustained Community of Practice. Participants are certified and equipped to serve as resource persons, trainers, or facilitators at national and regional levels for a minimum period of three years.
Outcomes	A sustainable and regionally coordinated network of certified GCED and SEP trainers is established, enabling the systematic sharing of expertise across countries to strengthen national and regional capacities in sustainability and global citizenship education through strategic, collaborative capacity-building initiatives.
Recognition and Sustainability	Participants who will successfully complete the programme will receive official recognition or certification from SEAMEO SEPS. Graduates are expected to contribute to future SEAMEO SEPS initiatives, support national-level activities, and sustain the Community of Practice beyond the programme duration.
Provisions Covered by SEAMEO SEPS (Full Sponsorship – Onsite)	All expenses for the onsite training sessions in Thailand (28 September – 2 October 2026) will be fully covered by SEAMEO SEPS under GCC funding, including accommodation and training materials.
