SUBJECT : PARTICIPATION IN THE TEACHER EDUCATION ROADMAP
2035 CARAVAN

DATE : August 26, 2026

The Teacher Education Council (TEC) will conduct the #GurongMayKaalaman: Teacher Education Roadmap 2035 Caravan on September 22–25, 2026 at Saint Louis University, Baguio City, as part of the National Teachers' Month Celebration 2026.

The Caravan aims to engage key stakeholders in developing the Teacher Education Roadmap 2035 and strengthen support for teacher education reforms, generate recommendations and commitments, and showcase initiatives on teacher preparation, career progression, inclusion, research, and innovation.

In this regard, the participation of DepEd personnel and learners from the National Capital Region is endorsed and encouraged, subject to the following:

1. Supervisors and school heads, and teachers may participate throughout the Caravan, September 22–25, 2026, subject to the limitations of the 3-term school calendar particularly the instructional block.
2. Learners may participate only on September 22, with proper supervision and in accordance with DepEd policies on learner participation in out-of-school activities.
3. All participants shall accomplish the TEC pre-registration and other required documentation.
4. Participation is free of charge. Travel, meals, and accommodation shall be at the participants' respective offices/schools, chargeable to available and allowable local funds, subject to existing budgeting, accounting, and auditing rules.

5. CPD units shall be awarded to eligible participants who complete the required workshops. Certificates shall likewise be issued by the TEC upon completion of the required documentation.
6. Participants shall secure the necessary authority for official travel/participation, as applicable, and ensure that school and office operations are not unduly disrupted.

The Schools Division Offices are requested to facilitate and coordinate the participation of appropriate personnel and learners and ensure compliance with applicable DepEd policies.

For coordination, contact the TEC Secretariat at secretariat@tec.gov.ph or Mr. Jan Zenne O. Genandoy, Project Development Officer III, through Viber at +63 956 894 5346.

Immediate dissemination of and compliance with this Memorandum is desired.

SUBJECT: INVITATION AND REQUEST FOR ASSISTANCE IN THE TEACHER EDUCATION ROADMAP 2035 CARAVAN ON SEPTEMBER 22-25, 2026

Dear SECRETARY ANGARA:

Greetings from the TEC Secretariat!

As part of the National Teachers' Month Celebration 2026, the Teacher Education Council (TEC) will be conducting the #GurongMayKalidad: Teacher Education Roadmap 2035 Caravan from September 22-25 2026, at Saint Louis University, Baguio City.

The Teacher Education Roadmap Caravan aims to convene key stakeholders across the Teacher Education sector to establish the Teacher Education Roadmap 2035 as the shared national framework for developing quality educators.

The Caravan also aims to achieve the following objectives:

1. Strengthen public and institutional support for the teaching profession and teacher education reforms;
2. Generate commitments and recommendations that can inform TEC's next steps and implementation planning; and
3. Showcase programs, initiatives, and opportunities related to teacher preparation, career progression, inclusion, research, and innovation, among others.

In this regard, we respectfully invite Undersecretary Garma and Regional Directors Aquino, Capulong, and Andaya as honored guests to the first day of the Caravan on 22 September 2026.

In addition, we respectfully request for your endorsement of this activity, through the Office of the Undersecretary for Governance and Operations, to the DepEd Regional Offices III, CAR, and NCR for their kind assistance in coordinating and ensuring the participation of DepEd supervisors, school heads, teachers, and learners under their jurisdiction throughout the duration of the Caravan.

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
TEACHER EDUCATION COUNCIL

Please note that participation in the Caravan is free of charge. In addition, the participation of learners shall be requested only for the first day (September 22) of the Caravan, while supervisors, school heads, and teachers are requested to participate in all days of the Caravan, subject to the DepEd's policies and guidelines on the participation of learners and teachers in out-of-school activities. The TEC shall also require a pre-registration to ensure proper documentation of all participants.

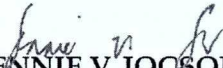

As well, Continuing Professional Development (CPD) units will be awarded to eligible participants who complete the various workshops during the Caravan. Participants shall be responsible for their own travel-related expenses, including transportation, meals, and accommodation, which shall be charged against their respective local funds. Certificates of Appearance and Certificates of Participation shall be provided to the participants upon their completion of the required documentation (i.e., attendance sheets, evaluation forms) for the activity.

For coordination or questions, you may contact us through email at secretariat@tec.gov.ph, or through Mr. Jan Zenne O. Genandoy, Project Development Officer III, through Viber at +63 956 834 5346.

Your assistance is invaluable in advancing and delivering our goals for the development of a quality teacher education system. We hope for your kind consideration.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

JENNIE V. JOCSO, Ph.D.
