SUBJECT : DISTRIBUTION OF THE READING MATERIALS FOR KEY STAGE 1 (KINDERGARTEN TO GRADE 3) LEARNERS

DATE : August 26, 2026

In connection with the implementation of the project titled Printing and Delivery of Reading Materials for Key Stage 1 (Kindergarten to Grade 3) Learners, this Office reiterates the importance of ensuring the timely distribution of reading materials to Key Stage 1 learners to support the development of foundational reading and literacy skills.

The immediate distribution of printed reading materials will ensure that learners promptly receive resources needed to enhance reading proficiency, strengthen literacy skills, and support learning continuity including during periods of class suspensions, disaster situations, emergencies, and other circumstances that may disrupt regular classroom instruction. The availability of storybooks and other reading materials at home will help ensure the continuity of literacy development and reading engagement beyond the school setting.

All Regional Offices (ROs) and Schools Division Offices (SDOs) are hereby directed to facilitate the orderly distribution of the reading materials to all K to 3 learners and to ensure compliance with established inventory and documentation requirements. Continuous coordination among the concerned offices shall likewise be maintained to support the efficient implementation, monitoring, and reporting of the program.

For purposes of monitoring fund utilization and the status of the printing and delivery of the reading materials, ROs and SDOs are requested to accomplish and regularly update the monitoring form through the following link: <https://tinyurl.com/Printing-Delivery-KS1> which shall serve as the basis for tracking implementation progress, ensuring timely delivery of materials, and facilitating the consolidation of reports.
